

THE DAILY COMMONWEALTH.
FRANKFORT, TUESDAY, FEB. 15, 1848.
KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

IN SENATE.
MONDAY, Feb. 14, 1848.
The Senate was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. ROBINSON, of the Presbyterian church. Journal was read by the Clerk.
A message from the House, by the Clerk, announcing the passage of certain bills, &c.

Petitions.
Petitions were presented by Senators Patterson, Crenshaw, McNary and Brien.
Mr. HOBBS had the unanimous consent of the Senate to report a bill from a select committee, incorporating the 2d Baptist Church in Louisville, which was read and passed.
Mr. HELM, from the committee on the Sinking Fund, called up the unfinished report from that committee, which was a bill for the benefit of the heirs and widow of Wm. R. McKee, dec'd.; read and passed.
Mr. PATTERSON, from the Judiciary committee, a bill for the benefit of the illegitimate children of James Holland, of Caldwell county; read and passed.
Mr. CRENSHAW, from the same committee, a bill to amend the penal laws—making the mischievous injury of private or public property a penal offence; read a second time.

High Court of Impeachment.
On motion of Mr. JAMES, the Senate resolved itself into a High Court of Impeachment, in the case of the Commonwealth vs. John A. Duff, late Surveyor of Perry county, for high crimes and misdemeanors in office.
The Court being duly opened, the examination of witnesses was continued until 1 o'clock, when a recess was had until 2 o'clock.
EVENING SESSION.
The entire evening was consumed in the examination of witnesses. At 5 o'clock the Court adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.
On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
MONDAY, February 14, 1848.
The House was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. ROBINSON, of the Presbyterian Church. The Journal was read by the Clerk.
Petitions were presented by Messrs. Quarles, Grainger, Boulware, Collins, Miller (a remonstrance), Chilton, Culton, Wilkins and Grubb, which were appropriately referred.
Mr. MOORE—Judiciary—had leave at this time, to report a bill to establish the town of Buena Vista, in Russell; county; read and passed.
Also, a bill for the benefit of the Sheriff of Laurel county; read and passed.
Also, a bill to amend the Trustee law of the town of London; read and passed.

Reports of Standing Committees.
Mr. J. N. STEPHENS—Propositions and Grievances—a Senate bill to run and mark a part of the line between Jefferson and Shelby counties; read and passed.
Also, a Senate bill to enlarge the limits of the town of Cadiz; read and passed.
Also, a bill to incorporate a Fire Company in the town of Winchester; read and passed.
A message from the Senate, announcing the passage of a bill.
Also, a bill to repeal an act prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors in the town of Lagrange, &c.; read and passed.

Mr. HAGGARD moved a re-consideration of the vote, by which the bill to continue in force the law incorporating the Louisville and Shepherdsville Turnpike Company was passed.
He advocated the motion to re-consider, at some length.
Mr. T. D. BROWN was in favor of the motion; he thought the bill itself bore the evidence of fraud upon its face, by referring to an act of incorporation passed in 1835.
Mr. BARLOW hoped the motion would prevail, in order that the House could do justice to the people living in that portion of the State.
Mr. HARDY advocated the motion; he thought the bill would be oppressive to the people living in that portion of the State.
Mr. MILLER opposed the motion to re-consider, at length; he did not think the bill fraudulent in its character. The law of 1835 was in the Capitol, and might be seen by all; there were some restrictions to the right to take tolls—the Company were compelled to McAdamize it within two years, &c.
Mr. GRAINGER read a portion of the bill, and said it had been misapprehended by the gentleman from Cumberland. (Mr. Haggard.) He opposed the re-consideration at some length.
Mr. DOHONEY was in favor of the motion.
Mr. DUNCAN advocated the motion at some length.
Mr. COLLINS said the committee had had a copy of the same bill under consideration and were about to report favorably thereon, when it came from the Senate. He thought the principle involved was an important one, and that was, that a county had no right to make its own roads, &c.
The vote was re-considered, also the vote by which it was ordered to its third reading, and the bill was then committed to a select committee.
Upon the question to commit with instructions to report this afternoon,
Mr. GRAINGER said he was not at all astonished that the gentleman from Cumberland opposed the instructions to report this afternoon. He tells you he is opposed to the bill in any shape or form, and it is easy to see that he does not wish to perfect it, but wants to consign it to the Tombs of the Capulets. He hoped the bill would be referred with the instructions.

A message from the Governor, announcing his approval of certain bills, &c.
The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication from the 2d Auditor in reply to the resolution offered by Mr. McReynolds; read, and on motion of Mr. Christopher, 500 copies were ordered to be printed.
On motion of Mr. COLLINS, Mr. Hardy was added to the committee on Internal Improvement.
Mr. T. D. BROWN, of the select committee, to whom was referred the bill to abolish the militia system and to revise and permanently establish Common Schools in this Commonwealth, reported a substitute for said bill; read.
Mr. WOLFORD moved to make the bill the special order for Thursday next; carried.
Mr. McKINNEY, of the committee on enrollments, made a report.
Mr. J. N. STEPHENS, against the petition of sundry citizens of Cumberland county; concurred in.
Also, against the petition of sundry citizens of Fleming county; concurred in.
Also, a bill authorizing the County Court of Mason to sell certain county property, &c.; read and passed.
Also, a Senate bill to enlarge the powers of the Trustees of the town of Louisa; read and passed.

Also, a bill for the benefit of Ann H. Cundiff, of Clay county; read and passed.
Also, a bill for the benefit of Price Snyder, of Simpson county; read and passed.
Also, against the petition of sundry citizens of Graves county; concurred in.
Mr. GARNETT—Propositions and Grievances—a bill allowing an additional Justice of the Peace to the county of Barren; read and passed.
Also, a bill to repeal the law in relation to private passways in Mercer county; read and passed.
Mr. J. N. STEPHENS asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the petition of Margaret Anderson; granted.
Mr. CULTON moved to refer the petition to the committee of Ways and Means; carried.
Mr. HOLMES—Privileges and Elections—a bill to establish an additional precinct in the county of Boone; read and passed.
Mr. BERRY—Claims—a bill for the benefit of John W. Hazlerigg; read and passed.
Also, a Senate bill for the benefit of Rebecca Claypool; read.
Also, a Senate bill for the benefit of Wm. Rowlet of Owen county; read.
Mr. BLANTON made a statement of the facts in the case.
The yeas and nays being called on the final passage of the bill, it was passed 49 to 32.

Orders of the Day.
The motion to re-consider the vote, by which the bill, modifying the law of 1833, made by Mr. WRIGHT on Friday last, came up in order at this time.
Mr. WRIGHT withdrew the motion.
Mr. HANSON made a question of order as to the right of the mover to withdraw the motion to re-consider.
The SPEAKER decided that the mover had not such a right, after it had been entered on the Journal by the Clerk.
Mr. FLOYD moved the previous question.
Mr. HANSON raised the question, that a motion for the previous question must be supported by four fifths of the House—it being a constitutional provision, that free debate should be had, and it requiring four fifths to dispense with it.
The SPEAKER decided that any gentleman had the right to move the previous question, and that a majority of the House was sufficient to sustain it, and that it was not the duty of the Chair to decide upon the constitutionality of this question.
Mr. HANSON appealed from the decision of the Chair.
The question of order was discussed by Messrs. Hanson, T. D. Brown and Hardy in favor of the appeal, and by Messrs. Floyd, Bowling, Combs and Elliott in support of the Chair.
Mr. HANSON then withdrew the appeal.
Mr. T. D. BROWN renewed it.
One o'clock having arrived, the House took a recess for one hour and a half.

EVENING SESSION.
Mr. COMBS had unanimous consent to report a bill to erect a monument to those who have fallen in defence of their country.
The question now being "shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the House?" it was decided in the affirmative.
Mr. COMBS moved a call of the roll—34 members were absent.
The question now being "shall the main question be now put?" The yeas and nays being called, it was lost 37 to 37.
The question now being on the motion to re-consider the vote by which the bill was passed—
Mr. HARDY had never requested a speech to be published; he never made a speech for home consumption. He proposed to make an examination into the constitutionality of the law as it had been passed on that ground. The Constitution says the Legislature shall have full power to prohibit the importation of slaves for merchandise, &c.; the word full, shows that the power was entirely in the hands of the Legislature. The law could be evaded, and a man could under the pretence of necessity, sell slaves in less than three years which he may import. It had been said that the opposers of this law were to be called Abolitionists; he was not to be frightened from his position by any such imputations. He would repeat any such idea; he was in favor of continuing in force the present relations between master and slave; the right to do it, was guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States. The passage of this law would be the means of introducing many bad and evil disposed negroes into the State; it resulted from the very nature of the case, for if a man had any negroes at all to sell, he would very naturally sell the worst and evil disposed to be taken away, and keep for his own use, those that were good. What he wished to avoid, was the contaminating of the slaves we now had. He did not desire to see the relation of master and slave cut loose in Kentucky, if it was done he would not remain in the State.

If the United States policy of prohibiting the importation of slaves into the Union is a good policy, is not the policy a good one for Kentucky too? Most assuredly it is. He did not think that the persons bringing slaves into the State, would be the persons that employed them. No man had complained that the drivers of mules, horses, hogs, &c., had brought too much money into the State; and now if you allow them to bring back negroes, it will, as a natural consequence, reduce the amount of money and would result eventually in closeness of money matters. The law was not demanded by poor men; but it will result in much detriment to them. Abolitionists may induce slaves to run away and give them just as much protection in another State, after the passage of this law as they now can. It would admit bad negroes, and in that manner would afford an additional ground upon which Abolitionists would propagate their baneful doctrine. He contended that the emancipation of slaves would be much to their misery and misfortune; they would be cast upon the cold charities of the world, without means of support or protection, and would not, and could not provide for themselves. He would prevent the abuse of slaves and maintain the law as it now is. It would be acting brutally towards the slaves to force them from the land and drive them to Liberia; if a master was disposed to send his slave, and his slave was willing to go to Liberia, that was another matter; but all were not willing to go, and he would not drive them away; he would allow them to remain in their present condition.
He opposed the bill, and advocated the motion at length.
The motion was then lost.

The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. HUGHES in the Chair, on the bill to fix the ratio and apportion the representation for the next four years.
The question being on the amendment offered by Mr. Smith to strike out Garrard from the 23d Senatorial District.
Mr. SMITH stated that Madison had a voting population of upwards of 2,500; that Garrard had not quite 1,600, that while the district remained as it was, Garrard had but little chance to elect a Senator, and he thought it unjust that she should form a part of a district, in which she was not on an equal footing with the rest. He objected to the district on account of the number of voters, it was made to contain. The number was much larger than was required to form a Senatorial District; and he noticed briefly other Senatorial Districts, reported by the committee showing that injustice had been done, both to Garrard and Madison, in continuing them together. A majority of his constituents desired a change, and he therefore, felt it his duty to advocate their wishes. He advocated his motion at length.

The motion was then lost.
Mr. JOHNSTON moved to strike out Marshall and add it to Livingston, thus giving Calloway one.
Mr. JOHNSTON advocated the motion at some length, insisting that such a change would make the representation nearer equal, fair and just. He would not impute any improper motives to the committee; he believed that the bill was reported in this manner from the fact that Marshall and Livingston were divided by the Tennessee river, but such an objection should not influence the matter at all. He felt much interest in this matter, because it involved the rights of his constituents. Calloway expected a separate representation, and she deserved it, for her number of votes was but 167, short of the ratio.
Mr. BOYD was opposed to the motion; neither Calloway or Marshall, were entitled to a separate representation, because they could not draw residuums from any adjoining county. He endeavored to show that the reasoning of the gentleman from Calloway, (Mr. Johnston,) if carried out through the whole State, would deprive the upper portion of the State of their proportionate representation. There was no county from which Calloway could draw a residuum, except Marshall. The increase of Livingston for the last four years, was greater than in either Calloway or Marshall. They had formerly been one county, and had identical interests; they were not divided by any river or any thing but the surveyor's marks.
Mr. JOHNSTON replied to the gentleman from Livingston, (Mr. Boyd,) showing that the vote of Marshall county was but 29 votes less than Livingston, while it was 413 votes less than Calloway, and the adding of Marshall to Livingston, would bring the vote 384 votes nearer the ratio. He believed that Calloway was justly entitled to a separate representative, and he urged the amendment upon justice, and not upon party grounds.

Mr. BOYD replied to the gentleman from Calloway, (Mr. Johnston,) and opposed at some length, the amendment proposed.
The amendment proposed by Mr. Johnston, was then lost; and on motion of Mr. HAGGARD, the committee rose, reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again.
And then the House adjourned.

WHIG MEETING IN CARTER.
At a meeting of the Whigs of Carter county, at the Court House in Grayson, on the 5th day of Feb. 1848, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Whig Convention, to be convened at Frankfort on the 22d day of February inst.
On motion of George W. Ward, Col. Wm. G. Carter was called to the chair, and Elias P. Davis was appointed secretary.
On motion of John C. McGlossen, George W. Ward, John T. Shepherd, Jack B. Ward, David Devore and Maj. Larkin Dawson, were appointed a committee to draft resolutions for this meeting, and appoint delegates to the Whig State Convention at Frankfort on the 22d day of this month, who, after retiring for a short time, reported the following preamble and resolutions:
WHEREAS, it is proposed by the Whigs of Kentucky, to hold a Convention at Frankfort on the 22d day of February inst., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and Lieut. Governor of this Commonwealth; and whereas, it is desirable that Carter county should be represented in said Convention;

Resolved, by the Whigs of Carter county here assembled, that George W. Ward, Maj. Larkin Dawson, John T. Shepherd, Jackson B. Ward, Thos. Burroughs, Wm. Kibby, George W. Crawford, Gabriel Scott, James Lampton, Thomas J. Hood and Dr. A. J. Lansdowne, be the delegates from Carter county to said convention, and that they are earnestly requested to attend the deliberations of the Convention, and co-operate with the Whigs then and there assembled.
Resolved, That although we could designate names from amongst the distinguished gentlemen who have been presented to the people to fill these offices; and although the Whigs of this county may have a preference for certain individuals—yet to produce harmony, concert and union, we leave our delegates uninstructed and free, to select the most acceptable names, after consultation, for the important offices to be filled in this Commonwealth, hereby pledging ourselves to the nomination of the Convention a hearty support.
Resolved, That although the Whigs of Carter county are in a minority, that they have always felt, and still feel an ardent attachment for Whig principles, and will bring out their strength at the coming election, and use all honorable means to secure the election of the nominees of the Convention.
Resolved, That Capt. L. M. Cox has our thanks for his able defence of Whig principles, in his late arduous canvass for Congress in this district, and carries with him to Mexico the best wishes for his health, and honorable distinction in the service of his country, and the hope of the Whigs of Carter county, that he will be enabled to return in safety to his native soil.

Resolved, That the Whigs of Carter have no fears of the result of the coming election, if all will do their duty as they intend to discharge theirs; that the usual zeal of the Whigs of the State will carry the election by an overwhelming majority, notwithstanding the boasted prediction of the locofoco party.
Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting are tendered to Col. W. G. Carter, for the able and dignified manner in which he has presided over its deliberations.
Resolved, That the Kentucky Whig and Frankfort Commonwealth be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting, the meeting then adjourned.

The object of the meeting was explained in a few brief and appropriate remarks by W. L. Pointer; and on motion of Col. M. H. Webb, W. L. Pointer, John D. Otter, G. F. Locke and Stanford Mitchell, were appointed a committee to draft resolutions, who reported the following, which were unanimously adopted.
WHEREAS, There is to be holden in the town of Frankfort, on the 22d day of February, 1848, a Whig Convention, for the purpose of nominating suitable persons for the office of Governor and Lt. Governor, at the approaching Gubernatorial election; therefore,—

Resolved, That we recommend to the favorable consideration of said Convention, the Hon. Wm. J. Graves, and the Hon. J. L. Helm, as persons eminently qualified to perform and discharge the duties of said offices.
Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to our Whig brethren throughout the State, that we will most heartily support the nominees of said convention in the coming contest.

TUESDAY.....FEBRUARY 15, 1848.

Single copies of the DAILY COMMONWEALTH neatly enveloped, can be had at the Counting Room of this office for two cents per copy. Single copies of the WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, containing full reports of the Legislative proceedings, can be had for four cents per copy.

McCLUNG'S SPEECH, delivered before the Colonization Society, is now ready for delivery at the Counting Room of the Commonwealth Office—Price $3 per hundred.

A number of the friends of Gen. Taylor, in Cincinnati have employed Mr. Jones, an artist of that city, to proceed to Baton Rouge, and take a bust of the Old Hero.

We have witnessed with the profoundest regret, a disposition in several quarters, to draw invidious comparisons between Mr. Clay and Gen. Taylor—to array the friends of one against the friends of the other, by a needless and ill-timed comparison of their respective claims to the confidence and support of the Whigs of Kentucky and the Union, in the approaching Presidential contest. For a quarter of a century, Mr. Clay has been the acknowledged leader of the Whig party. In sunshine and in the dark hour of defeat and adversity, he has been the same steadfast, unyielding and firm advocate of Whig principles. He has ever been ready to fling himself against the breastworks of our adversaries, and almost unaided and alone, to do battle in our cause. He now has, as he has ever had, a strong and firm hold upon the affections of his party. There are thousands who feel that while Mr. Clay lives, we should battle under his banner, in the hope that a glorious victory may finally be won, and that he may receive the just reward of long and faithful public service. As a great statesman, and a daring, manly leader in great political contests, they regard Mr. Clay as having no equal. On the other hand, the friends of Gen. Taylor love the honest hearted and single minded old Captain; they have seen and heard of his great simplicity of heart, and honesty of purpose, and his unflinching devotion to his country. HE, TOO, IS A WHIG, and his friends know it. They desire to bestow upon him the first office in the gift of his countrymen. They will hear of no other leader than Gen. Taylor. The consequence is, that friends who have stood shoulder to shoulder for years, are estranged. They are arraying themselves under different banners, and there is great danger that the cause of quarrel with the common enemy, may be forgotten, amid the clash of arms in our own camp. The Democrats look upon this unnatural contest with pleasure. Every Whig stricken down, or disabled, is a gain of one to the democracy. They feel that if we divide, they must conquer. They are united as one man. They have no cause of quarrel with each other. Their party stands as a unit—and so it will come into the battle.

Under such a state of case, the question proper to be considered by every true hearted Whig, is, what can be done to preserve the unity and integrity of the Whig party? What course shall be adopted to heal our present wounds, and enable us to go into the contest united? We know of no other plan than the union of the party upon the broad Whig platform—a WHIG NATIONAL CONVENTION. It is needless to say "there is no necessity for a National Convention." Every prudent and reflecting man will perceive at once, upon a calm survey of the ground, that neither Gen. Taylor, Mr. Clay, nor indeed any other Whig, can be elected without the aid of the great Northern and Eastern States. To talk about the uprising of the people in favor of one man or another, without regard to party, is sheer folly and a waste of words. The people of this Union are divided into two great political parties. Those parties stand arrayed against each other upon great national questions—questions involving high principles of governmental policy—and depend upon it, they will not abandon those principles, and yield up their differences upon those questions of policy. They affect to be guided in their political movements, by a sincere devotion to certain principles, and though it may be true, as is urged in some quarters, that this thing of principle in politics is a humbug, there is something fascinating in the idea—the delusion is so pleasing and full of flattery to the integrity of the human heart, that men are not disposed, without cause, to abandon it. As before stated, the aid of the Northern and Eastern States is essential to the success of the Whig candidate, it matters not who he may be. The Whigs of those States have declared in favor of the nominee of a convention. Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina, have also spoken in its favor. The Whig members of Congress, fully apprized of the position of the party, and the prospects of the several aspirants to the Presidency, with great unanimity recommend a convention. With all these lights before us, it would be madness to deny that there will be a convention. That a candidate will be nominated by that convention, is absolutely certain; and that the nominee will receive the support of the Whig party, we do not think admits of a doubt. That two or three States refuse to go into the Convention, will not have the slightest influence upon the action of that body. If, for example, the friends of Gen. Taylor, in Louisiana, shall carry out the spirit of their resolutions, adopted a few days since, and refuse to send delegates to the convention, its only effect will be to weaken Gen. Taylor in convention, to the extent of the vote of Louisiana. The Whigs of Iowa, in a better spirit and with more wisdom, have, though they prefer Taylor, sent their delegates to the convention.

Whether the nominee of that Convention shall be victorious, or not, depends, we verily believe, alone upon the Whigs of the Union. They have power to elect their nominee, if they will be united. Will they throw away the prize they have so long and so nobly battled for, when they have but to reach forth and grasp it? Will they, by fruitless family quarrels, fix upon the country for another term of four years, the rule of the Progressive Democracy? We cannot believe they will.

We recur to the question, what shall be done? A Whig National Convention having been determined on, there is but one course for the Whigs to pursue. From this day forth, let us look only to that Convention. Let there be no longer discord and division in our ranks. Let all violent and unnecessary discussion of the claims of our respective favorites be foregone; let their merits be discussed calmly, fairly and in a manly spirit; let prudent, discreet and trustworthy delegates be appointed to represent us in the Convention. The Convention will then be so constituted, as to secure, beyond doubt the nomination of the best man, and the one most likely to secure the triumph of the party. Let these things be done, and all will be well.

"FUSION OF PARTIES"—"NO PARTISANISM," &c.—It was predicted months ago, that these new schemes, designed originally to overthrow and destroy all party organization and political distinction, would result in disaster to the Whigs; for while they would adhere to their pledges to the new organization, the Democrats would return to their party, and would act with it upon all suitable and important occasions. The State of Louisiana was among the first to take up this humbug, and for many months the press of that State was teeming with "proceedings" of "large and enthusiastic meetings without distinction of party," at which all manner of patriotic and party-sacrificing resolutions were adopted. In the recent elections by the Legislature of Louisiana—of an United States Senator, a Public Printer and State Treasurer, we have a fair and just illustration of the effect of "No Partisanship." There was, in the Louisiana Legislature, a Whig majority of four on joint ballot; yet the Democratic candidate was elected in every instance! Party was sacrificed; but it was a sacrifice of the Whig Party, for the benefit of the Democrats. There was no yielding up of party, by the Democracy. They clung to their old organization, they were true to their old friends, and we honor and applaud them for it.

The proposition to unite the two parties of this country, to abandon old issues and disregard old associates, is a device of the enemy intended to weaken and distract the Whig party. Such a union is impossible in the very nature of things, unless one party or the other shall abandon its long cherished principles. Are the Whigs prepared to do this? They are not. The Democrats will not, we are sure. There can, therefore, be no such union. We implore the Whigs to beware. Such humbugs, if encouraged, will not only ensure our defeat the present year, but they will, finally, work the destruction of the Whig party, and the Federal Government will be consigned to the keeping of the "Progressive Democracy," for an indefinite period.

THE FREEMAN'S JOURNAL, is the title of a new paper, published at Covington, Kentucky, and edited by Wm. Banton, Esq., the first number of which we received on yesterday. THE JOURNAL is thoroughly Whig, is ably edited, and cannot fail to do good service in the Whig cause in the 10th District. We have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with the Editor. He is a vigorous writer and a thorough and unflinching Whig. His paper is neatly printed on a large sheet, and should be well sustained by the Whigs.

Mr. WILMOT, of Pennsylvania, "the proviso man," as the Union calls him, was attacked in a most violent manner in an editorial in the official organ at Washington, on account of the proposition introduced by him a few days since to raise $5,000,000, annually, by direct taxation, to enable the Government to pay off her war debt, &c. &c. Mr. W. replied to Mr. Ritchie from his place in the House of Representatives in one of the most denunciatory harangues we have ever read. He does not scruple to denounce the venerable Editor, Mr. Buchanan, and the whole tribe, as unworthy their places, and unfit to associate with Mr. Polk. "That last brick," gave the severest lick of all. Mr. W. declared that Gen. Jackson was a judge of men, and had placed on record his estimate of Mr. Ritchie's character. He read from the letters of Judge Brackenridge: "I have often heard him (Jackson) use these emphatic words: 'Ritchie is the greatest scoundrel in America.' And in one of these letters he uses the following language, which deserves to be engraved in letters of brass: "I see that I am attacked in Congress by Cooke, Whitman and Williams, aided by that infamous press, the Richmond Enquirer. If such a corrupt press as the Richmond Enquirer were to approbate my conduct, I should think that in some unguarded moment I had committed some great moral impropriety."

How humiliating to the head of one of the very first families of Virginia, to be thus denounced and vilified on the floor of Congress by a Pennsylvania Crout-eater! Did you ever!

GEN. TAYLOR IN MISSOURI.—The St. Louis Republican and New Era, contain a call for a mass meeting in that city, on the 22d inst., of the friends of Gen. Taylor, in order to place him more before the people of Missouri for the Presidency. The Republican in publishing the call says:

"Whatever may be the division of opinion elsewhere, here, and in the entire State of Missouri, there is but one voice, and that is in favor of the election of ZACHARY TAYLOR to the Presidency. This has been seen in the public meetings elsewhere held; it is visible in the sympathy which warms and animates every man, when his name and his deeds are mentioned, and it pervades every class of society. It is wonderful, indeed, how, by no art of his own—but by appeals to popular favor—the honest and brave old man has won upon the public esteem until his name is on all tongues, and the sympathies of the old and young are enlisted in his favor. It is such a testimony to the goodness of heart, the simplicity of character, to the true bravery and the military services of the Patriot, as has not been given to any other individual in the last twenty-five years."

CANADA.—The Montreal Courier, of the 1st, contains an article which commences thus:

Shall we have a separation from the mother country and become a Republic? or shall we join the United States? These are the two questions upon which the country must now decide. Mr. L. Joseph Papineau has declared for a Republic. He has caused one rebellion to obtain it.

The Wisconsin Convention, on the 1st instant, agreed upon a State Constitution, by a vote of 62 to 1, upon the final vote, taken upon the adoption of the Constitution as a whole.

MELANCHOLY.—Mrs. Sharpe the celebrated vocalist, while ascending the ladder from the cabin to the boiler deck of the Steamer FASHION, bound for Louisville, on which she was a passenger, fell over board and was drowned. She had been married but a few days to Mr. KNEASS, an opera singer, and was with her husband when she fell off the boat. The accident occurred while they were ascending the ladder over the wheel house.

For the Commonwealth. GENTLEMEN:—As some of the members contribute such valuable poetry to your paper, I have chosen to inflict a few lines on you, which, like some others you have received, will be remembered when Milton and Shakespeare are forgotten, but not until then. Here they are:

The expected invitation, which by custom's made a right, The Leave of our Gov'nor, on the thirteenth day (at night.) I attended as in duty bound, my homage there to pay To him who by Kentucky's wish, holds now the sovereign sway.

I went with one called "Ftill," a genius bright and rare, As ever graced this breathing world, or any other sphere; To know him, is to like him, and proud am I to say, That his kindness and attention, increase with every day.

When presented to the Gov'nor, a tall, dignified old man, He received me with due courtesy, and shook me by the hand; The last line is not rhyme I know, but that's not here or there, 'Tis truth, tho' it be not poetry, so I have naught to fear.

That ceremony over, the scene I turned to view; 'Twas a living panorama, with the faces ever new, As so at least to me they were, like I never did see; The rich, the poor, the high, the low, were mingled up with me.

But to describe the Ladies, their beauty, dress or taste, By me would be impossible, and time but only waste; So I think then that their eyes were stars, their teeth like rows of pearls,

Their smiles like sunshine after storms, and then's Kentucky girls. An abundance was there of ice cream, of cakes and kisses sweet (Of candy mind) with motto's quaint, that I can't now repeat, Tho' some were taken from Homer, and some from Milton too, From Shakespeare, Byron, Moore, and Scott, and Yankee Doodle too.

All seemed to be delighted, the young as well as old; The Ladies talked, and laughed, and eat, did any thing but scold; But as it then was growing late, I could no longer stay, So got my hat, my coat and cane, and bowed myself away.

A word to those that sent me here, I hope they'll judge me fair, Nor think I'm only capable of "trifles light as air;" I'll guard their rights—their interest watch!—aye with a jealous eye!

And always, tho' I may not succeed, be sure I'll always try, But as it now is twelve o'clock, I think I'll go to bed, And hope you'll not deal hardly with the little I have said; I know it is not dignified to raise the laugh or jest, 'Tis a time there is for all things, and those among the rest.

PHENIX. For the Commonwealth.

TO THE POETS OF THE LEGISLATURE. When unfledged poets spread their wings, Parnassus' summits to explore; Those giddy heights 'bove mundane things, Confound good sense, in lyric lore.

Old Homer's shade is scandalized, And Pope and Pindar left behind; Good English prose is vandalized, By members of the rhythmic kind.

Oh! Ghost of Milton, heed my prayer, Haunt not those men who murder rhyme, Poets will write, and Statesmen are Adepts in writing metred chime!

Excuse the bard who dares expose The doggerel of those would be great men, Whose poetry most clearly shows, If Pope was right, they'll ne'er be statesmen.

"So vast is art, we find, so narrow wit, One science only will one genius fit!" I think the people will next year, as fit is, Leave them at home to learn poetic wit.

When members grave and sage we see, Turn wit and poets of the press, I fear the consequence will be— I will not say—but you may guess.

THESE BITTERS have been used by Dr. Taylor in an extensive practice for twenty-seven years, and have recently been proven in many parts of the country to be the most valuable medicine ever known for restoring female health. Females of every age will find them to be a never failing remedy in all cases of suppressed menstruation, bringing about regular, easy, and healthy menstrual evolutions. In the critical periods of life, when there is an effort of nature either to set up or arrest the monthly sickness, they are essential to health, warding off Dropsies and Consumptions, which are so common to those stages of life. The general health is so improved by their use that Barrenness cannot exist under their influence. The Proprietor of this Medicine is confident in the belief that a cure, and all its aids is a trial. 17 Hundreds of Certificates, from both Male and Female, can be seen by calling on the Agents. THE ONLY REMEDY FOR HART'S VEGETABLE EXTRACT.

It is well known, that from time immemorial, Physicians have pronounced Epileptic Fits incurable. It has baffled all their skill, and the boasted power of all medicine, and consequently thousands have suffered through a miserable existence, and at last yielded up their lives on the altar of insanity. Physicians of every age have pronounced this disease incurable. The proprietors of the Vegetable Extract, however, feel no delicacy in saying, that it can be cured. They would, therefore, respectfully invite Physicians and all others who are interested, to examine the testimony which is here offered. If it is deceptive, let it be exposed; but if it is true, then in the name of humanity, no longer let it be said that Epilepsy is incurable.

HART'S VEGETABLE EXTRACT.
For sixteen years, has been tested by many persons who have suffered with this dreadful disease, and in every case where it has been tried, has been cured. A. Col. Beaulieu, of New York, states that his daughter has been afflicted with Fits for more than nine years, and has been cured by the use of the Vegetable Extract.

Mrs. J. Brantley, 115, Grand and San Antonio, New York, states that she has been subject to Fits for many years, and has been restored to perfect health (after every other means had failed) by the use of the Vegetable Extract.

Dr. Charles A. Brown, of Dover, Russell Co., Alabama, who is one of the best Physicians in the State, says that he has been much benefited by the use of the Vegetable Extract, and that he unhesitatingly prescribes it in every case of Epilepsy which comes under his knowledge.

Curtis G. Mayberry, Esq., formerly Postmaster at Linn Mills, Crawford Co., Pa., now living in Erie Co., Pa., states that for many years past he has been afflicted with Fits, and he is now happy to state that by a persevering use of Dr. Hart's Vegetable Extract for a few months, has restored him to sound health, being entirely freed from that worst of all diseases.

FITS OF 27 YEARS AND SIX MONTHS CURED BY THE USE OF THE VEGETABLE EXTRACT.
Read the following remarkable case of the son of William Secore, Esq., of Philadelphia, afflicted with Epileptic Fits 27 years and 6 months. After travelling through England, Scotland, Germany and France, consulting the most eminent Physicians, and expending for Medical, medicinal treatment and advice, three thousand dollars, returned with his son to this country in November last, without receiving any benefit whatever, and was cured by using

HART'S VEGETABLE EXTRACT.
Mr. Wm. Secore's Letter to Dr. Hart.—I have spent over three thousand dollars for Medicine and Medical attendance. I was advised to take a tour to Europe, which I did. I first visited England, I consulted the most eminent Physicians there in respect to my son's case, they examined him and prescribed accordingly. I remained there three months without receiving any change for the better, which cost me about two hundred and fifty dollars, pocketed by the physicians, and the most I received was their opinion that my son's case was hopeless, and positively incurable. I accordingly left England, and travelled through Scotland, Germany and France, and returned home in the month of November last, with my son from being cured as when I left. I saw your advertisement in one of the New York papers, and concluded to try Hart's Vegetable Extract, seeing your statements and certificates of so many cures, some of twenty and thirty years' standing, and to assume my son's case. I did so, as by the use of Hart's Vegetable Extract alone, he was restored to perfect health. His reason, which was so far gone as to unfit him for business, is entirely restored, with the prospect now before him, of usefulness. He is now 28 years of age, and 27 years and 6 months of this time has been afflicted with this most dreadful disease; but thank God, he is now enjoying good health.

Now, gentlemen, faith without works I don't believe in. To say that I shall be grateful to you is one thing, and as I here enclose you one hundred dollars, I have no doubt that you will think this an excellent quality of reward, and as your gratitude I still owe you, but please accept that amount as interest on the debt in advance. Yours, very respectfully,
(Signed) WILLIAM SECORE.

TESTIMONY UPON TESTIMONY.
In reference to the almost miraculous efficacy of this truly wonderful Medicine, read the following letter from Doctor W. L. Monroe, of Guilford, Ohio, one of the most eminent Physicians in that place.
GUILFORD, OHIO, August 17th, 1846.

Brother laborer in the cause of Humanity:
Dear Sir—It is with no small degree of pleasure that I am enabled to announce to you the complete triumph of your invaluable medicine in cases of Epilepsy. I have prescribed it in four instances in this city, and it has been highly successful in all. Three of the patients, I trust, have been radically cured. The fourth one is rapidly improving, and will, I think without doubt, recover. I am not at all describing or recommending your Patent Medicine; but when I see an article which promises so much for the relief of suffering humanity, I feel it my duty to recommend it; and I have no hesitation in saying, that as soon as the Faculty are well acquainted with the real merit of your medicine, they will close their eyes against prejudice and lend you a helping hand.

I subscribe myself, yours, sincerely,
W. L. MONROE, M. D.

Bacon College.
THE Trustees of BACON COLLEGE take pleasure in announcing to the friends of education, that the sum of $114,000 has been raised, by voluntary subscriptions, to liquidate the debt due by said Institution; that the Institution may now be regarded as free from all its embarrassments, and in possession of property necessary to its usefulness, which has cost about $20,000, besides a nucleus for an endowment, consisting of near $5,000 in Northern Bank Stock, $2,000 in Road Stock, donated by individuals, and from $7,000 to $8,000 in subscriptions, annually falling due.

They avail themselves of this occasion to tender to the friends and patrons of the Institution their grateful acknowledgments for the timely aid which their liberality has afforded, and which has been the means of saving from entire loss, an institution which has already done much to advance the standard of literature and science, and to confer their blessing upon many, some of whom are meritorious and deserving, but unable, otherwise, to prepare themselves for future usefulness in an elevated sphere.

They take this occasion to say, that the doors of this Institution have never been closed against the poor, because of their poverty. They sincerely hope that no necessity may ever exist to compel a different course.

As BACON COLLEGE may now be regarded as permanent, we solicit for it the continued aid of all its friends. Send up your young men, and entrust them to our care. We will do what we can, so to form their characters and cultivate their minds, as to make them ornaments to society, a blessing to their parents, and rich legacies to the age in which they may live.

Done by order of the Board, at Harrodsburg, the 8th day of January, 1848.

LIFE INSURANCE.
NAUTILUS (MUTUAL LIFE) INSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 29, WALL STREET, NEW YORK.
THIS Company, which confines its business exclusively to Life Insurance, has now been in operation two years and a half, during which period it has issued 152 policies, and for the first eighteen months it experienced no loss. Its losses for the whole time have been less than $18,000—leaving an accumulation of about $50,000 on hand, beyond the payment of claims and expenses. This, added to the original guaranty capital of $50,000, places the security of the Company on a basis so solid as no longer to admit of a rational doubt.

Its profits accrue to the credit of the policyholders, and are divided annually among them, whether the policy be issued for a limited period or for the whole term of life, a feature unknown in the charter of any other Mutual Life Insurance Company incorporated by this State.
Two dividends of 50 per cent. each, on the amount of premiums received, in accordance with the provisions of the charter, have been declared, and will be paid in cash, in which case it is expected, should the party survive to make 13 annual payments, leaving the dividends to accumulate—the policy will be fully paid for, and the accumulation of good material, I solicit a share of patronage. I will attend to all finances and contracting, and will give satisfaction, and at Cincinnati prices.

KENTUCKY MILITARY INSTITUTE.

This Institution, created by an Act of the General Assembly, will be opened for the reception of Pupils, On the 1st of March, 1847, under the immediate direction and entire control of a Board of Visitors,
Appointed by the Executive of the Commonwealth.

It contemplates a Military Organization for Literary and Scientific purposes; an education eminently scientific and practical, and one which will inculcate the habits, and the diffusion of a knowledge of Military Science.
Military duties will not be permitted to interfere with the pupils' progress in study, but will rather take the place of his unprofitable, and often, vicious idleness.
The course of study adopted, and which will be required in order to graduation, is that usually taught in the best Colleges, except that one language is required, (Latin or French), the time usually occupied by the second, being devoted to a more extended course in Mathematics, Natural Science and English Literature.

A Preparatory Department is organized in connection with the Institute, in which boys of any age are taken, and are subjected to the same Military discipline as the Cadets.
The position of the Institute, at the Franklin Springs, near Frankfort, Kentucky, (recently occupied by the Franklin Institute), is admirably adapted in every respect to Academic purposes; the locality being airy and healthy, the mineral waters salutary, the buildings elegant, extensive and commodious, and entirely apart from the contamination and multiplied malice influences, which seem inseparable from a city or village residence.
The Institution is placed under the charge of Col. R. T. P. ALLEN, as Superintendent, who has been brought prominently before the public, as a competent and successful teacher and governor of youth, by his honorable graduation at the United States Military Academy; his subsequent connection with the Army, and his position as Superintendent of the General Government, as Superintendent of public works; by his long experience as an Instructor, by his recent connection with the Transylvania University.

The Academic Year will be divided into two Sessions of twenty-one weeks each.
The first commencing on the 1st Monday in October, and the second on the 1st Monday in March. The only vacation occupying the month of August, and September.
The month of July will be spent in an excursion through the State, for the better study of its Geology and of Natural Science generally.

For admission, on paying the charge of the Institute, and presenting a certificate of good moral character, will be admitted into the classes as their advancement may justify, and upon satisfactory passing the next examination thereafter, will be admitted to a course of Academic study, as Cadets, from the Government. The uniform of the Cadets is plain and neat, and being of Kentucky Jeans, will greatly reduce the expense of their clothing.

Dr. Penney's Ague Pills.
Presenting the public with this remedy for the most troublesome of Western diseases, I am not surprised of the opposition that it will at first meet; for the community has suffered much by the impostures and frauds practiced by the getters-up and vendors of quack nostrums, specific remedies, and medicines professing to cure all diseases. So much have the people suffered from such infusions on their credulity, that it would seem foolish in any one, at this day, to introduce a specific medicine, but I do it, and do it too, sanguine of success. Having had ample opportunity to test the efficacy of the Ague Pills now presented to the public, I do assure them, that they have never failed to cure in one solitary case where the directions were strictly observed.

They seem equally as well adapted to Agues of long standing as more recent ones. I could add a great many certificates in support of my claims, but as I have been so long in the business, but that would swell, unnecessarily, this publication. A few respectable witnesses are worth a host that are otherwise. See what Dr. John McRoberts, Druggist and Physician, says, who acquaintance with the Ague Pills is better than that of any other person.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Oct. 1847.
This is to certify, that I have been suffering from the Ague Pills, as local Agent for this place, since some time last spring; and in every solitary instance that has come to my knowledge, they have succeeded in curing the Chills and Fevers. I heartily recommend them to the public, as a remedy every way worthy of confidence.
JOHN McROBERTS.

HOUSE AND LOTS FOR SALE.
Desiring to take a residence more retired, I will sell, if application be made, my house and lots in Frankfort, on Ann and Merco streets. The buildings are in excellent order and embrace superior conveniences for a town residence. The garden is perhaps one of the best situated for its size, in the Western country, abounding in every production, adapted to the climate, necessary to the comfort and luxury of a family. The collection of fruit and ornamental trees, grapes, &c., is of the best, and in every department, among which are, nearly 100 varieties of superb roses.
Besides the lot of 100 feet front on Ann, attached to the house, there are three acres of land, building lots, two of 30 and one of 40 feet front on Ann, 200 feet deep to an alley, the latter fronting 200 feet on Merco. I will sell in parcels, or the whole together. Terms, ill made known on application. THO. B. STEVENSON.
